See Mrs. Satsky to claim.

Found: white headphone adapter

See Mrs. Satsky to claim.

Warm up today with a cup of hot chocolate! Only $1.00! Cookies are also $1.00. Sophomores will be selling both in the science wing hallway at break today.

Annie Fleishman Franceschi, Class of '04, will be at Barnes & Noble this evening from 7:00-8:30 for a book signing. Annie has written a book, Permission to Try. Stop by and get your book autographed by an FA alum!

Students: You must check-out through the front office before leaving campus early. Even though your parent called giving permission, you must still check-out. Any Upper School student reported not checking-out will report to Mr. Wright the following day or to Mrs. Satsky who will assign a detention for a Middle School student.

There will be a Key Club meeting during lunch tomorrow in Dr. Limberg's room.

Students: Tomorrow during lunch at 12:30 – War Games!!!

Students: Remember that on your 7th tardy to school you will begin serving a detention. Some of you are very close.

This week, Key Club is hosting an event to make cards for troops stationed overseas. All students in grades 6-12 are welcome; come to Dr. Limberg's room during lunch every day through Friday.

Seniors: Mr. Quesnel will host the November pizza lunch today in Room 48. Plan to stay for most of the lunch period.

Gamer's Club will meet today at lunch in the SmartLab.

Upper School students with an interest in social justice issues are invited to apply to the UNC Catalyst Conference, held from Feb 15-17 on the UNC campus. The application is due on Sunday and is available at <https://unccatalyst.weebly.com/apply.html>

Students: Are you an animal lover? Do you want to help the underprivileged dogs and cats who will not have a home for Christmas? The Builder's Club will be sponsoring a food drive for the Cumberland County Animal Shelter. Bring in cans or bags of dog and cat food for those animals that do not have a home. You may bring them by Mrs. Stanbridge's room (28) anytime between now and December 14. We will be taking the food items to the shelter for Christmas. The Builders Club will also be collecting can tabs for the Ronald McDonald House. This will an on-going project, so bring in your tabs from cans of soda to your advisor/advisory class and someone will collect them. Thanks for your help and support!

Service Opportunity: Emily Brown and Maggie Barnes are collecting gently used children's winter clothes for the elementary students at T.C. Berrien until December 7. A box for donations will be in the main office and outside the Lower School office

Methodist University will be conducting on-site admission interviews for seniors on Thursday, December 6, during 3rd period. Seniors should sign up on Naviance and see Mrs. Frady for instructions.

The online spirit-wear store is open for limited items. Included are PE uniforms for adult small and adult medium sizes since the school store is out of those items. All other sizes are available. To access the store, go to the FA website > Academy Parents > Online Store or go to <https://schoolhousegear.com/fayacademy/>
